

Off The Kerb Productions Presents:
Kevin Bridges: Here If You Need Me
European Tour 2026/27

'A comedy masterclass' The Herald

'Blessed with that extra smidgen of God-given talent' The Times

Kevin is back, and he's Here If You Need Him.

Scotland's comedy powerhouse Kevin Bridges returns to the stage in 2026 with a brand-new stand-up show.

After shattering box office records with Overdue Catch-Up (2022), Brand New Tour (2018), and A Whole Different Story (2015), Kevin has firmly established himself as one of the UK's most successful stand-ups. His warmly relatable, hilarious, and keenly observed comedy has earned him an undeniable reputation as a crowd-favourite comedian.

Together, his past tours have drawn over two million fans across the globe, featuring an extraordinary 63 sold-out performances at Glasgow's OVO Hydro and SEC venues — the most by any performer in the venue's history. His tours have earned him multiple accolades, including Ents24 Fastest Selling Ticket of the Year and Ticketmaster's UK Ticket of the Year (2018).

2025 saw Kevin launch his debut North American Tour, performing to more than 40,000 people, with a final sold-out show at the iconic Beacon Theatre in New York.

Now, he's back.

Don't miss the opportunity to experience one of the most insightful, down-to-earth, and consistently brilliant comics of his generation – live.

'Masterful stuff' The Guardian

'...an edge seldom found in mainstream comics' Mail On Sunday
'It's his eye for details that has elevated him to a MUST-SEE act' The Daily Mirror