

Nurse John

The Short-Staffed Tour

Nurse John is a registered nurse turned stand-up comedian whose sharp, story-driven humor explores hospital culture, patient interactions, and the heroics of healthcare workers. Blending character work with relatable workplace observations, he delivers clean sets that resonate with nurses, students, and anyone who has spent time in a waiting room. His stage persona balances warmth and wit, inviting audiences to laugh at the chaos while appreciating the people who keep care moving.
